

Jesse Males

I'm Jesse Males, an avid fly fishing, snook snatching, kayak paddling, tarpon slaying, mountain hiking, manatee swimming fool from Central Florida. Over the years fly fishing has had a huge impact on my life and particularly on how I view the world we spend our time in.

I am the owner of backwaterflyfishing.com which provides HD Fly Tying Videos as well as HD Photo tutorials of my favorite patterns. I also provide video content of my recent trips as well as HD Video Gear Reviews on the website.

My love for saltwater fly tying lead me to launch my online fly shop backwaterflies.com about a year and a half ago. This has been a huge leap for me and despite the overwhelming success and acceptance by the fly fishing community, it is still very much a work in progress.

For the past two years I have been spending most of my time down in Costa Rica exploring the fisheries and getting to know how everything works in the jungle. Here putting new patterns to the test and working with people on both the Caribbean coast and pacific coast keep me pretty busy.

While I love being on the water, I love spending time at the tying bench and helping others advance in the art that is fly tying.
